The trustees are members of the board. The board keeps the skill requirements for the trustee body under review. The trustees normally meet 3-4 times during the year to agree and review broad strategy, to monitor past activities and to agree areas of activity for the organisation, including risk management policies and performance. In addition, subcommittees of trustees are in frequent electronic contact, and also meet regularly to agree operational policy and to support those who are responsible for the administration of the charity. The trustees receive no remuneration for their time.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY MUSICAL SOCIETY

Risk management

The Charity trustees have considered the major risks to which the charity is exposed and have reviewed those risks and established systems and procedures to manage those risks.

Objectives and activities

The company is a registered charity established for the public benefit (1) to promote and advance musical education and musical performance within the University and city of Cambridge and elsewhere (2) to promote and advance musical education and musical performance in any manner which now is or may in the future be deemed to be charitable

Achievements and performance

The Society has had a successful year, operating a number of ensembles, putting on concerts and performances, and nurturing exceptional talent by awarding concerto prizes and conducting scholarships and through the appointment of a Composer in Residence.

The Society operated four orchestras, three choirs, a lunchtime series of Chamber concerts, and a new Percussion ensemble. In total it gave 24 evening performances in Cambridge, 16 lunchtime Chamber concerts, and two performances in London.

Artistic highlights included Beethoven's Missa Solemnis conducted by Sir Roger Norrington in King's College Chapel, Peter Donohoe performing Rachmaninov's Piano Concerto No. 3 in Cambridge and at Cadogan Hall, London, a live broadcast by the University Chamber Orchestra on BBC Radio 3 with King's College Choir and Stephen Cleobury, and a recording of Britten's St Nicolas with Britten Sinfonia and King's College Choir for the CUMS Chorus. During the course of the year the Society released a recording of symphonies by Haydn and Mozart conducted by Sir Roger Norrington.

CUMS provided instrument hire services to musical organisations within the University of Cambridge and to a large number of local societies, many of which benefitted from subsidised rates. Its outreach programme continued with a concert for schools.

This year has been its first as a registered charity. During the year we established a Board of Trustees.

Financial review

The Society typically invests in creating excellent concerts. These concerts often make a modest loss. This loss is funded by our fund raising activities. A donation of a few hundred pounds can make a huge difference to the experience of the student performers.

In some years the Society breaks even or makes a small surplus, but this year it made a loss. There were two main causes. The first is a greater investment in concerts than in previous years. The second is that the change to the status of a registered charity required the Society to account for depreciation.

Plans for future years

Our primary objectives include maintaining the current level of musical activity and building up the governance, management and fundraising for the society. We are constantly looking for opportunities to reduce costs and improve our marketing and concert revenues.

Reserves policy

The trustees aim to maintain free reserves in unrestricted funds at a level that provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration and support costs and that will allow the charity to respond to any emergency funding requirements which may arise from time to time.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the small companies regime under the Companies Act 2006.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011 and the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

As directors, the trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- i) ensuring that the company keeps proper accounting records which comply with the Companies Act 2006; and
- (ii) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of this Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:
 - proper accounting records are kept in accordance with s.130 of the Charities Act 2011; and
 - accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in March 2005 (SORP 2005), applicable accounting standards and the Charities Act 2011.

Cash flow statement

The trustees have taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 (revised) from including a cash flow statement in the financial statements on the grounds that the charity is small.

Recognition of income

Income is recognised in the period in which the charity is entitled to receipt and the amount can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Grants made during the year, but for expenditures which are to be incurred in future years, will be recognised in the future year to which they relate.

Resources expended

All expenditure is included on an accruals basis and is recognised when there is a legal or constructive obligation to pay for expenditure. Expenditure has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs relating to the category. Costs of charitable activities relate to the work carried out on the core purposes of the musical society. Governance costs are those costs incurred in connection with administration in the charity, compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements and costs of the strategic planning process. Support costs are allocated across specific categories of expenditure mainly on the basis of time spent.

Tangible fixed assets

Small instruments are written off in the year in which they are purchased.

Instruments with an expected life time in excess of 5 years and a replacement value in excess of £100 are capitalised and provided with an expected lifetime ranging between 5 and 15 years.

Instruments are written off if lost or if damaged to a point where they cannot be repaired and are no longer fit for use.

Musical scores are written off as expenditure in the year in which they are purchased and therefore any residual value is not included on the balance sheet.

Other fixed assets may be capitalised if significant. If so, then the item and its treatment will be described in the notes to the accounts.

Investments

Investments are included the balance sheet at estimated market value. Market valuations are normally done annually and the latest valuation is used to estimate market value.

Fundraising

All funds raised are recorded under 'fundraising', even if they are specifically related to particular concerts, ensembles or events. All significant expenditures related to fundraising are recorded as such in Expenditures.

Accruals

Amounts due but not received in the year will be accrued for – those would typically be gift aid payments and outstanding hire charges.
